

Outdoor Sports Take On the Tinge of Fall

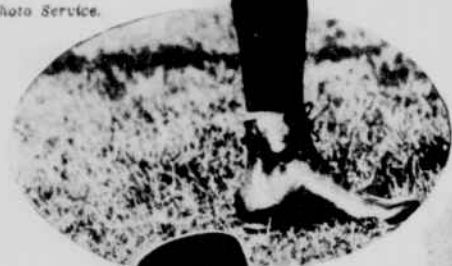

THE YALE FOOTBALL SQUAD—Top row, left to right: Moseley, Gates, Carson, Neville, Taft, Waite, Cox, Otis, Woods, Black (captain), Hutchinson, Nichols, Comerford, Philbin, Foster, Osmund, Church, Baldrige, Connolly, Vorys. In front of Gates, Robinson. Centre row Bingham, Legore, Early, Jones, Lynch, Stewart, Van Nostrand, Carter, Bridge, Conway, Potter, Jacques, Senner. Front row: Backus, Ames, Markle, Bentham, Hallowell, Gardella, T. Smith, Thomas, Waslich

Greely Photo Service

Cochran, Columbia halfback, gets off a long spiral.

Greely Photo Service.

Harvard beats Colby in first game of season. Captain

Cawley, of Colby,

making a five-yard gain.

Underwood & Underwood

Mrs. William K. Dick, who was Mrs. John Jacob Astor, at the Piping Rock Horse Show.

Central News Photo Service

A group at the White Plains Horse Show. From left to right they are Mrs. A. J. Drexel Biddle, Jr., Mrs. Carley Harriman, Mrs. Oliver Harriman, Master Jack Harriman, Oliver Harriman, Master Jefferson B. Harriman, Mrs. Russell Colt (Ethel Barrymore), and A. J. Drexel Biddle, Jr.

Underwood & Underwood

Constance de Sala Regan, ten years old, and some of the trophies she won at Piping Rock.

American Press Association

Hutchinson, of Yale's backfield, qualifies for the chorus.

Greely Photo Service

New York poloists beat Philadelphians for national championship at the Philadelphia Country Club, Bala, by a score of 15 goals to 12 1-2.

Underwood & Underwood

A notable group in the senior golf tourney at Apawamis. Darwin P. Kingsley is driving, U. S. Supreme Court Justice Pitney (in white hat), J. A. Tyng and Frank Presbrey are looking on.

Kellar & White